Government Proceedings No.8036-84/ Medl.24-13-13 dated 24th February 1914, passing orders on the scheme for the improvement of the Malnad.

Order thereon No. 99927 dated 7.4.14
Medl-13—30

Government are pleased to lay down the following supplementary instructions, with reference to paragraphs 7, 8 and 13 of the Government Order read above:-

(1) The members of the Committee to be constituted for the purpose referred to in paragraph 7 of the Government Order, will for the present be appointed for a period of one year at a time.

(2) If a member finds it inconvenient at any time to actively co-operate and render efficient help towards the promotion of the objects of the Committees, he ~~may~~ should be requested to ~~be good enough~~ to inform the Chairman of such inconvenience, so that another member may be promptly appointed to take his place.

(3) The constitution of the Committees as well as the written instructions issued by the Deputy Commissioners under paragraph 13 of the Government Order, should be reported for the information of Government. As one of the objects of constituting local Committees is to facilitate the rapid disposal of questions, arising for decision in each District in connection with the scheme, without avoidable references to Government, it is expected that all necessary details will be considered and ~~carried out~~ given effect to, as far as possible, by the Committees and the officers concerned. In all matters left to ~~themselves~~ the Committees, the initiation should come from themselves.

The important thing is that responsibility should be strictly defined and any overlapping of functions avoided as laid down in paragraph 13 of the Government order of the 24th February last.

(4) It is understood that The temporary establishment to be entertained by the Committees will work under the immediate control of the Secretary to the Committees. ~~under other arrangements~~ If any other arrangements are deemed necessary, Govt will be prepared to accord to necessary sanction.
